INDIAN INFLUENCE

These cocktails will take you through many fruits and flavours India has to offer.

PUNJABI COLADA

Spiced rum and coconut ice cream - a perfect pairing. This long drink is blended with lime juice, pineapple juice and ginger syrup for extra refreshment.

7.50

SHARAABI

Meaning a drinker/drunken in Punjabi, this luscious cocktail may well describe you! A light floral drink focussed on gin and lychee liqueur.

7.50

BANANA DAIQUIRI

Taj's take on the classic Daiquiri, with both fresh banana and banana liqueur for the utmost flavour.

7.50

MUMBAI MULE

A twist on the famous Moscow Mule - we have added mango and additional ginger for a sweet but slightly spiced taste.

7.50

ORANGE CITY

Named after the city Maharashtra in India this is a crisp, citrus forward margarita-style drink. Packed with Orange flavour from Bayou's Satsuma Liqueur.

7.50

LAL SKY

Red or 'lal' in Punjabi describes the striking colour of this Whisky sipper. Smokey black cardamom and tart cherries round out this cocktail.

7.50

SASSY LASSI

Based on the tried and true recipe of India's national drink. It includes the prerequisite milk and yoghurt but also Baileys and Amaretto for additional creaminess.
